

Workshop on Water Policy [26th & 27th Feb, 2022]

Dialogue and discussion around water and irrigation is undeniable issue in the state of Jharkhand, as the state is a plateau region with diverse relief and climate. Focus on Women and small marginal farmers around water policy in the state was thoroughly discussed and rich experience around water and irrigation status throughout the state was shared by the representatives of more than 30 CSOs spread across the state of Jharkhand. Some of the core discussion point of the workshop were, understanding water policy and sustainability in the context of Jharkhand, Analysis of system of today and tomorrow, Scope of Integration and convergence with various stakeholders at all level and way forward.

---

